Sunday Shopping

Sunday nights are special for Evie and Grandma. That's when they go on their weekly shopping spree. Grandma flips open the newspaper to see what's advertised, and the imaginary tour of neighborhood stores begins. Overflowing with whimsy and a sweet grandmother-granddaughter relationship, this picture book is a joyous celebration of imagination, family love, and making a lot of what you've got.

Discussion

After Reading the Book:

- Can you remember a time when you went shopping with a grandparent or another older family member? What do you remember about the trip? What did you buy?
- Evie picked out a necklace which was precious to her. What is an item that you purchased that is valuable to you?
- Evie pretended to buy tulips for her Grandma. Was there a time when you gave a special gift to a family member. How did it make you feel?

Reginald F. Lewis Museum Connection

In 1948, Victorine Q. Adams opened the Charm Centre, the only black-owned and operated clothing store for women in Baltimore. Mrs. Adams had everything from hats to gloves. Many young girls dreamed of going to the Charm Centre at prom time.

Family Activities

Make a Necklace

You will need: Scissors
Empty Cereal Box
Aluminum Foil
Glue Stick
One-hole punch
Sharpies or Markers
String or Cording

Instructions:

1. First cut out strips of cardboard from an empty cereal box.
2. Use a glue stick to secure heavy duty foil around all sides of the cardboard pieces.
3. Decorate the foil pieces with Sharpies or markers with various designs.
4. Cut out different shapes and use a hole punch to place two holes on opposite sides of the shape.
5. Lace the pieces together with a string or cord.

Create a Paper Hat

You will need: Large sheet of paper
OR poster board
Colored construction paper
Scissors
Glue
Ruler
Protractor or a plate

Instructions:

1. Draw two circles onto a large sheet of paper or poster board with a protractor or a circular plate. Using a ruler, draw 8 triangular sections like a pizza in the inner circle.
2. Punch a hole in the center and cut across each pizza section's line. Fold the triangular points outward.
3. Decorate and cut out paper ornaments or shapes out of colored construction paper. Glue the decorations on to the hat's brim and the tips of the triangular sections.
4. Add any additional decorations you make have like stickers or glitter.
5. Take a photo in your new hat!
